Dear Friends:

The mission behind Project Hospitality is defined by a selfless desire to help countless individuals from Staten Island who are hungry, homeless or seeking employment. The efforts of Project Hospitality necessitate recognition and I am honored to welcome you to the Harvest of Courage in the time of COVID-19: The Frontline and the Fallen virtual event.

For nearly three decades, Project Hospitality has stood as a shining example of how to engage effectively in community service, assisting Staten Islanders in achieving a new level of independence and self-sufficiency. Spearheaded by my dear friend, the determined and equally altruistic Reverend Terry Troia, Project Hospitality has truly influenced the Staten Island community, and I would like to extend my utmost gratitude for all their efforts.

Furthermore, I would like to commend this year’s honorees for their exceptional support on behalf of the people of Staten Island. The honorees: Frank Moriano, Pat Kane, Jose Mejia, Natalie DeVito, Michelle Molina, Jose Williams, Floria Acilan, and William A. Sorensen are outstanding members of our community who have served on the frontline throughout the COVID-19 pandemic.

The efforts of Project Hospitality and these honorees stand as an inspiration to all of our community, and as such, on behalf of the 24th Senate District, I would like to express my sincere gratitude. Congratulations and best wishes for a successful event!

Sincerely,

Andrew J. Lanza
Senator, 24th District

Dear Friends:

I would like to congratulate Project Hospitality on their virtual Harvest Tribute event! Over the course of the COVID-19 pandemic, Project Hospitality has served our neighbors and our community in ways that we will never forget.

I would also like to congratulate this year’s honorees and thank them for their service during one of New York’s most difficult times: Frank Morisano, Pat Kane, Jose Mejia, Natalie DeVito, Michelle Molina, Joe Williams, Flora Achan, and William Sorensen.

When we needed them most, these individuals stepped up to help our community and we are forever grateful for that.

Sincerely,

Diane J. Savino
NYS Senator, District 23

CONGRATULATIONS TO ALL HONOREES!
Congratulations to tonight’s honorees who have served our community during these unprecedented times.

Our Story
Staten Island Performing Provider System (SI PPS) is an alliance of clinical and social service providers. Our focus is improving the quality of care and overall health for Staten Island’s Medicaid and uninsured populations, touching more than 180,000 lives.

Since 2015, SI PPS has improved key health outcomes through innovative and data-drive population health initiatives.

Our Goals
Over 75 partner organizations with over 12,000 employees committed to:

- Improving access to high-quality, culturally-sensitive care
- Improving population health and health literacy
- Expanding integrated care and linkages to behavioral health services
- Reducing preventable hospital admissions and readmissions
